

KENTUCKY PHILOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION ANNUAL CONFERENCE CALL FOR PROPOSALS

VIRTUAL

MARCH 4-5, 2022

We invite proposals for a 20-minute presentation of original creative or scholarly work on any topic of language, literature, or pedagogy. The conference will be conducted over a virtual conferencing platform and will not require in-person attendance.

Proposals tied to our conference theme, TRANSLATION, are particularly welcome. All papers presented may be submitted for publication in the Kentucky Philological Review.

For this year's plenary session, we are proud to present MANUEL IRIS, Cincinnati Poet Laureate Emeritus and author of several books of poetry in both English and Spanish, including Lo Que Se Irá/The Parting Present and Traducir El Silencio/Translating Silence.

SUBMIT PROPOSALS TO KPSUBMISSIONS@GMAIL.COM BY JANUARY 15, 2022
